Jennifer,

The password associated with login sholley@ccala.org is "[REDACTED]". I just added you as a Global Administrator and discontinued these emails going to Lena's mailbox while I was in there. So now you should be able to do whatever you need – including deactivating me and changing my role. Is your IT consultant Logic TCG Support? If so, I see that they have Global Administrator access also so they can do these functions as well.

Let me know if you have any other questions.

Thanks.

Suzanne

Good Morning Suzanne,
Do you have the login for our Microsoft Office profile so I can update accordingly?

Thank you,
Jenn

Hi Jennifer,

Lena should be removed as a contact with this vendor. Hopefully we can easily do this. It looks like Suzanne has a login.

Thanks,
